Travel adventures led by Cornell faculty
November 2018–December 2019
Extraordinary destinations, exceptional faculty, unforgettable adventures

Register now for these CAU adventures!

New Zealand • Silicon Valley • Belize and Guatemala • New York, NY
Basel and Amsterdam • Mauritius and Madagascar • Rome, Italy • London
Franconia, Germany • Switzerland and CERN • Washington, DC • Costa Rica
New Paltz, NY • Galápagos and the Andean Highlands
Incomparable faculty guides
CAU’s travel adventures are designed and led by some of Cornell’s most engaging faculty members. Passionate about their subjects, with access to behind-the-scenes tours, our faculty leaders will help you delve deeply into the culture and history of the places you visit.

Unforgettable adventures
Whether swimming with seals, weaving textiles, or ziplining through the canopy, you can expect an extraordinary experience when you travel with CAU—further enhanced by top-notch accommodations, distinctive cuisines, and inclusive prices.

Personalized travel planning
With customized itineraries, continual faculty guidance and companionship, and a dedicated CAU host, our meticulous attention to detail leaves you free to enjoy your journey to the fullest.

Welcoming travel companions
CAU travelers are known for their great camaraderie and interest in compelling places and subjects—so you’ll enjoy the wonders of the world with others who share your curiosity and sense of adventure.
DESTINATIONS

New for 2019

January
New Zealand: Cruise From Auckland to Milford Sound by Sea

February
Silicon Valley: A Cornell Insider’s Tech Tour

March
Belize and Guatemala: Natural Wonders and Maya Traditions

April
New York, NY: A Spring Theater Weekend

May
Cruise from Basel to Amsterdam: Legacies of the Roman Empire and World War II
Mauritius and Madagascar: Asia Meets Africa—Cultural History and Abundant Nature

June
Rome, Italy: Walking Tour of the Eternal City—Rome Across the Centuries

July – August
CAU Summer Programs on Campus

September
London Theater: The Play’s the Thing
Germany: Bicycling Franconia—History, Culture, and Wine
Switzerland: CERN, Einstein, and Art

October
Washington, DC: Winning and Losing the Civil War

December
Costa Rica: An Ecological Family-Friendly Adventure

Last Call for Fall 2018 Trips

November

December
Galápagos and the Andean Highlands—A Family-Friendly Expedition

REGISTRATION

Important information
Registration form

KEY TO ABBREVIATIONS

DO: Price per person for double occupancy (adult)
SO: Price per person for single occupancy (adult)
C: Price per child (8–12)
T: Price per teen (13–17)
SS: Single supplement
CAU has been featured in Frommer’s, The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, Yahoo! Travel, Kiplinger’s, and Travel + Leisure. Join us and discover for yourself why so many savvy travelers select CAU as their adventure headquarters.

“Absolutely everything was first-rate. Fantastic local tour guides. Interesting lectures. Top-tier accommodations. I’d recommend CAU tours to anyone.”
—Jeanne Kaufmann

“For me it was a Camelot moment. Our professor was in top form—wise, funny, and occasionally outrageous. Our CAU organizer saw to it that every wish was granted.”
—Polly Flansburgh ’54

“Spellbinding lectures, great excursions, and wonderful accommodations, food, and service. And, a fun and funny group, we laughed a lot!”
—Mary Kate Owens

“Stimulating and engrossing!”
—Jerry Durkin ’79

“An amazing learning experience that exceeded my expectations. A mind-opening adventure that was very moving.”
—Bette Moulton ’70

New adventures for 2019
New Zealand
Silicon Valley
Belize and Guatemala
New York Theater
Basel to Amsterdam
Mauritius and Madagascar
Rome, Italy
London Theater
Franconia, Germany
Switzerland (CERN)
Washington, DC
Costa Rica
New Zealand

Cruise from Auckland to Milford Sound by Sea

From its tattooed Maori elders, austere glacial fiords, and boiling volcanic mud pots to its tidy English gardens, New Zealand is a country of spectacular contrasts—a world unto itself, isolated from other land masses by the Tasman Sea and Pacific Ocean.

Aboard the comfortable Caledonian Sky, we will visit all of New Zealand’s major cities as well as some of its cultural centers and storied nature preserves. We’ll explore the heartland of Maori culture in Rotorua, visit the Canterbury Museum’s Hall of Antarctic Discovery in Christchurch, and enjoy the Royal Albatross Centre on the Otago Peninsula. We’ll take Zodiac boats to Stewart Island to see native creatures such as the Bellbird and marvel at the sheer granite walls and tumbling waterfalls of Doubtful and Milford Sounds in Fiordland, a region so remote it remains largely unchanged since the days of Captain Cook.

We will savor this study cruise in the company of gifted Cornell ecologist and evolutionary biologist David Toews, as well as with a historian from Harvard and a geoscientist from Smith—excellent guides to the human and natural history of remarkable New Zealand.

Date: January 13–26, 2019

Cost: DO starts at $8,900, SS call CAU office

Activity level: ⭐⭐⭐

---

DESTINATION

- New Zealand
- Milford Sound, New Zealand
- Rotorua thermal geyser

FACULTY

David Toews is a postdoctoral fellow working in the Lovette Lab and the Cornell Lab of Ornithology. David also holds Canada’s prestigious Banting Fellowship in the Natural Sciences.

INFORMATION

- Date: January 13–26, 2019
- Cost: DO starts at $8,900, SS call CAU office
- Activity level: ⭐⭐⭐
Silicon Valley

A Cornell Insider’s Tech Tour

Enjoy a behind-the-scenes tour of some of the major tech companies in Silicon Valley in the informed company of Greg Morrisett, dean of the Faculty of Computing and Information Science.

We’ll meet with Cornell alumni who play pivotal roles in powerful Silicon Valley companies, including technology giant Google and Autodesk, which produces CAD software. In the process, we’ll gain insiders’ knowledge about procedures, speed of product development, and the distinctive cultures of these and other tech organizations.

During visits to The Tech Museum of Innovation in San Francisco and the Computer History Museum at Stanford, we will absorb the backstory of this fiercely dynamic industry. Greg himself will give talks that place our visits in helpful context. In the course of our stay, we will learn much about companies that not only explode traditional conceptions of the work place, but revolutionize the very world in which we now live.

Come join this technological adventure as we await—with happy anticipation or with trepidation—the next big thing.

FACULTY

Greg Morrisett is the dean of Computing and Information Science at Cornell University. He is a fellow of the ACM and has received a number of awards for his research on programming languages, type systems, and software security.

INFORMATION

Date: February 11–15, 2019
Cost: DO $3,971, SS $1,100
Activity level: 🌟🌟
Belize and Guatemala

Natural Wonders and Maya Traditions

Despite its small size, Belize combines Central American and Caribbean cultures with spectacular landscapes, while Guatemala mixes lively elements from Maya and Spanish culture. With skilled Cornell ecologists and wildlife biologists Cole Gilbert and Linda Rayor, we'll immerse ourselves in the natural beauty and fascinating traditions of both of these countries.

From Belize City, we'll fly to Chan Chich, an extraordinary rainforest lodge in the heart of an ancient city of the same name, whose Xunantunich Tower, the tallest Maya temple in Belize, testifies to the community’s heyday from 600 to 900 AD. Maya descendants fluent in natural history will guide our explorations of the surrounding pristine forest, full of medicinal plants, orchids, 350 species of birds, and five species of big cats, as well as monkeys and tapirs.

In Guatemala, we’ll visit the grand Maya city Tikal, with its plazas, massive altars, and temple pyramids towering above the surrounding Petan jungle. Its museums display treasures from centuries of archeological excavations. At Atitlan, a beautiful volcanic lake, we’ll boat to Santa Cruz, a traditional village, and we’ll end our journey in Antigua, an Old World Heritage Site, where we’ll tour the colonial town, visit the Centro Cultural La Azotea, and enjoy a concert of Maya music.

Note: An optional pre-trip extension of three days to Ambergris Caye and Barrier Reef will be offered.
New York, NY

A Spring Theater Weekend

“I regard theater as the greatest of all art forms, the most immediate way in which a human being can share with another the sense of what it is to be a human being.” So said Thornton Wilder, three-time Pulitzer Prize-winning American novelist and playwright.

We’ll explore what theater has to say about our human condition as we enjoy three of the best new productions on and off Broadway. Honing our understanding of the plays’ themes will be CAU superstar Glenn Altschuler, whose enduring interest in contemporary American theater will be clear in his skillful lectures and our lively discussions.

We will begin with an afternoon session at the Cornell Club, followed by dinner and an evening performance. On the following two days, we’ll meet in the morning for a lecture and discussion, enjoy lunch together, and attend a Saturday evening performance and Sunday matinee.

The program fee includes everything but hotel, breakfasts, and Saturday dinner. Make reservations at the Cornell Club if you’re a member, or choose a hotel, a friend’s couch, or your very own bed. Reserve your space with a deposit and make final payment for the program after Glenn selects the plays.

FACULTY

Glenn C. Altschuler is dean of the School of Continuing Education and Summer Sessions and the Thomas and Dorothy Litwin Professor of American Studies at Cornell.

INFORMATION

Date: April 12–14, 2019
Program fee: $1,777
Activity level: 6
River Cruise from Basel to Amsterdam

Legacies of the Roman Empire and World War II

Once again, Cornell historian Barry Strauss will join forces with Princeton’s Kevin Weddle to lead a rich and informative cruise—this time on a riverboat from Basel to Amsterdam. Along the way, Barry will lecture about the Roman history of the region, and Kevin will bring to life events of World War II.

The itinerary combines sites focused on those themes with classic highlights such as Strasbourg, Mainz, and fairytale castles of the Romantic Rhine. With Barry and Kevin, we’ll explore two of the best-preserved Roman cities, both UNESCO World Heritage Sites—Augusta Raurica and Trier, the capital of the Western Roman Empire. We’ll also visit important sites from World War II, including General Patton’s Third Army Crossing in Oppenheim and Operation Market Garden at Arnhem.

This stimulating program features the pleasures of a private charter of the ninety-passenger Royal Crown, an intimate vessel just over half the size of most riverboats in the region, with elegant public areas and staterooms, refined cuisine and service, and a lecture area for discussing the important history brought to light by daily site visits.

Note: An optional two-night pre-cruise extension to experience the Swiss Alps in Interlaken, Switzerland, and an optional two-night post-cruise extension to Holland will be offered.

Date: May 6–19, 2019
Cost: DO starts at $6,995, SO starts at $10,995
Activity level: ☀️☀️
Mauritius and Madagascar

Asia Meets Africa—Cultural History and Abundant Nature

On the islands of the West Indian Ocean, the cultures of Africa and Asia have collided and fused for centuries with fascinating consequences. On this tour of Mauritius and Madagascar, Cornell historian Eric Tagliacozzo will illuminate for us how the spice trade, intensified by nineteenth century imperialism, forged new economic relationships between Africa and Asia and stimulated a rich cultural exchange between the two continents. We’ll visit sites such as Port Louis, the capital of Mauritius, and its Aapravasi Ghat World Heritage site, which tells the history of the indentured laborers on the sugar plantations. We’ll also explore Madagascar’s capital, Antananarivo, and the Royal Hill of Ambohimanga, the sacred one-time home of Malagasy royalty.

In the company of local guides, we will also take in the extraordinary beauty of these countries and their wealth of native plants and animals. On Mauritius, we’ll go to Black River Gorge, the Seven Colored Earth at Charmarel, and Pamplemousses Botanical Garden. On Madagascar, we’ll explore the verdant rainforests and breathtaking scenery of national parks and nature reserves that protect a multitude of endemic species.

In Mauritius, we’ll also sample local dishes and experience the island’s Creole culture.

In Madagascar, we will observe lemurs, chameleons, and other unique wildlife.

Malagasy guides will lead us on expeditions to witness the famous leaping lemurs and capricious chameleons, as we experience firsthand why this island, dubbed the “eighth continent,” is like no other place on earth.

FACULTY

Eric Tagliacozzo is a Cornell history professor who specializes in the history of people, ideas, and material in motion in and around the Indian Ocean. Eric has written and edited numerous books about the cultural implications of trade between Asia, the Near East, and Africa.

INFORMATION

Date: May 29–June 9, 2019
Cost: DO $9,940 / SS $1,995
Activity level: anst

Baobab trees, Madagascar
FACULTY
Jeffrey Blanchard has taught Cornell courses in urban design, architecture, and art in Renaissance and Baroque Rome for more than thirty years.

DESTINATION
Rome, Italy
Walking Tour of the Eternal City: Rome Across the Centuries
Seat of the ancient Roman Empire, home of the Catholic Church for two millennia, and vibrant capital of modern Italy, Rome offers an astonishingly rich and complex array of treasures. The Eternal City’s long history has left layer upon layer of visible traces, creating astonishing and improbable juxtapositions.

In approaching this overwhelming wealth during our insider’s tour, we’ll concentrate on—but not limit ourselves to—the art, architecture, and events of the great Renaissance and Baroque phases of Rome’s history.

On daily four-hour morning walks, we’ll visit such celebrated sites as the Roman Forum, Palatine Hill, the Colosseum, and the Vatican. But we’ll often follow less-traveled paths in the illuminating company of Jeffrey Blanchard, academic coordinator of Cornell in Rome and art and architecture historian, who has lived in the city for the past forty years. We’ll also spend a day in the country at such sixteenth-century villas and gardens as the Palazzo Farnese at Caprarola and Villa Lante at Bagnaia. Fully acknowledging that to appreciate Rome “a lifetime would not suffice,” we will nonetheless do our level best. Prepare for awe.

INFORMATION
Date: June 10–20, 2019
Cost: DO $6,978, SS $1,195
Activity level: 3½
London

The Play’s the Thing: London Theater

“The point of theater is transformation: to make an extraordinary event of ordinary material right in front of an audience’s eyes,” says English playwright Lee Hall. We will explore five such transformations during CAU’s sixteenth journey to the perennially exciting London stage, with its varied and riveting productions.

We’ll enjoy plays in the West End and at the Royal National Theatre, framed by illuminating pre-performance lectures and post-performance discussions led by David Feldshuh and Glenn Altschuler (who will select the plays this winter). Enriching our visit, we will meet with a British actor from one of our productions and take a fascinating tour of the West End.

A practicing director, actor, and playwright, David will focus our attention on the theatrical possibilities and challenges of each production, while Glenn will emphasize the themes and contexts of the plays. Together, they will help us explore the imaginative process involved in transforming the written script of each play into a dynamic theatrical experience.

FACULTY

Glenn C. Altschuler is dean of the School of Continuing Education and Summer Sessions and the Thomas and Dorothy Litwin Professor of American Studies at Cornell. David Feldshuh is a Cornell professor of theater and artistic director of the Schwartz Center for the Performing Arts.

INFORMATION

Date: September 1–8, 2019
Cost: DO $6,317, SS $1,200
Activity level: 🌞
Germany

Bicycling Franconia: History, Culture, and Wine

Join classics professor Michael Fontaine on CAU’s first intermediate-level biking tour of the Franconia region of Germany. We'll explore medieval towns and castles, Renaissance palaces, Baroque opera houses, and vibrant vineyards along the Main River cycling path. As we take in Franconia’s beautiful rolling hills, adorned with fantasy castles and charming timber-frame houses, Michael, who co-teaches a popular wine culture course at Cornell, will talk to us about the region’s noteworthy viticulture dating back to Roman times.

Cultural highlights of our journey—expertly annotated with Michael’s insights on the region’s history—will include visits to such sites as Rothenberg, with its Medieval Criminal Museum, and Würzburg, home to the extraordinary Residence palace—one of the finest in Europe. We will also investigate the contradictions of Bamberg, a storybook town that escaped bombing during World War II, but harbors a dark history as the place where nearly a thousand people perished during its witch trials of the 1600s. Another excursion will bring us to the architectural wonders of Bayreuth, with its opulent opera house and extraordinary Hermitage Castle.

Ciclismo Classico, our superb tour operator, will provide our bicycles, expert local guides, comfortable accommodations, excellent food and wine, visits to vineyards during the harvest season, and an exhilarating and memorable experience. Riders up!

DESTINATION

Würzburg

Date: September 21–28, 2019
Cost: DO $7,250, SS $550
Activity level: 🍻👍👍👍

FACULTY

Michael Fontaine is a professor in Cornell’s Department of Classics and assistant vice provost of undergraduate education. He regularly offers lively courses on Greek mythology and literature, including the CAU summer seminar on “The Trail of Socrates.”

INFORMATION
Switzerland

CERN, Einstein, and Art: A Rare Insider’s Tour

Outside Geneva, the European Organization for Nuclear Research, or CERN, is home to the world’s most powerful particle accelerator—the Large Hadron Collider. Every several years the collider is shut down for enhancements and visitors are allowed underground. We will take advantage of the 2019 shutdown to descend five stories into the heart of Atlas, largest of the four detectors at CERN, for a close-up view of the most sophisticated piece of scientific equipment in the history of mankind.

While in Switzerland, we will learn about the dawn of modern physics and Albert Einstein’s work, especially in Bern, where he developed his Theory of Relativity, which revolutionized the way we think about space and time today and culminated in the greatest engineering project of all time, the LHC. One of our two faculty leaders for this rare and wonderful opportunity, is Cornell physicist Julia Thom-Levy, who, with her Cornell research team, is currently designing and constructing a silicon pixel detector to be flown to CERN for the Large Hadron Collider upgrade.

Our second leader is physicist Stephen Levy, who has done groundbreaking work in experimental particle physics at the Stanford Linear Accelerator Center.

In addition, we’ll also visit art museums to see works of Swiss artists, including those of Paul Klee, son of Bern. Along the way, we’ll explore Chillon Castle and relish a variety of Swiss delights, from fondue to chocolate to delicious Swiss wines.

Date: October 12–19, 2019
Cost: DO $7,990, SS $990
Activity level: ⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐
Washington, DC

Winning and Losing the Civil War

A war is won and lost by the long application of violence and by the death of thousands, their “last full measure,” as Abraham Lincoln put it in the Gettysburg Address. The Civil War was no exception, and it was won and lost on the Eastern Front, where generals including Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson, George McClellan, and Ulysses S. Grant made their names. The Eastern Front was the most important theater in the most important war in American history and we will explore how victory and defeat came to each side.

With Washington, DC as our base, we will start each day with a lecture by Cornell historian David Silbey on the course of the war. We’ll then head out to the scenes of three of the war’s most consequential battles: Antietam, the bloodiest single day in American history and the battle that led Lincoln to issue the Emancipation Proclamation; Gettysburg, the turning point of the Civil War and the so-called “High Water Mark of the Confederacy”; and Petersburg, the battle that ended the war in the East. We’ll tour each site for a visceral feel and intellectual grasp of the battles’ horrors, triumphs, and effects as the war progressed.

The Civil War is also about the human moments, and so we will visit Fort Stevens in DC itself, where Abraham Lincoln came to look at a Confederate raiding party in 1864. As Lincoln stood pensively on the fortifications, embarrassed by the raid and doubting his re-election, he was exposed to sniper fire, until—so the story goes—one junior officer shouted at him to “get down, you damn fool.”

DATE

October 21–25, 2019

COST

DO $3,277, SS $700

FACULTY

David Silbey is the associate director of the Cornell in Washington program and a senior lecturer at Cornell. He teaches courses on European history, modern military history, guerilla conflicts, and the role of popular will in waging war.

INFORMATION

Date: October 21–25, 2019
Cost: DO $3,277, SS $700
Activity level: 🏃‍♂️🏃‍♀️
Costa Rica
An Ecological Family-Friendly Adventure

With its lush rainforests, pristine coastal beaches, diverse animal life, and friendly culture, Costa Rica is a memorable destination for adults and families with children. In the company of superb naturalist and evolutionary biologist Scott Taylor, we’ll ascend the world-famous Irazu Volcano to enjoy the breathtaking view from the 11,000-foot summit. At Tortuguero National Park—a plant, wildlife, and bird paradise—we’ll visit the Sea Turtle Conservancy and kayak through the park’s maze of canals and thick mangrove trees, observing monkeys, iguanas, and crocodiles. On a jungle boat expedition, we’ll close in on river otters, caiman, and poison dart frogs and disembark to observe three-toed sloths, river turtles, toucans, and parrots.

En route to the Manuel Antonio National Park on the Pacific, we’ll zipline, swing, and rappel through the forest canopy. At the park, we’ll savor our accommodations at the luxurious Hotel Parador Resort and Spa, with its self-guided garden and wildlife trails and dance parties for all ages. We’ll walk, swim, snorkel, and maybe even learn to surf. Before parting, we’ll also stop for an outrigger canoe trip. What an adventure to enjoy by yourself, with family, or with a friend!

FACULTY
Scott Taylor, formerly of Cornell’s Lab of Ornithology, teaches in the Department of Ecology and Evolutionary Biology at the University of Colorado at Boulder and leads the Taylor Lab on hybridization, speciation, and natural history.

INFORMATION
Date: December 22–30, 2019
Cost: DO $5,995, SS $4,200, C DO $4,398
Activity level: 4
New Paltz, NY

The 2018 Midterm Elections: A Weekend Seminar

With the body politic more bitterly divided than at any point in recent history, the 2018 midterm elections could prove to be another pivotal moment in American history.

CAU favorite Glenn Altschuler will bring to bear his well-honed analytical skills as he talks about the cultural and ideological context of the election.

Joining Glenn will be Gretchen Ritter—government professor, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, and member of the Council on Foreign Relations—drawing on her command of issues of democracy and citizenship in American politics.

All of our lectures, lively discussions, and conversations during the weekend will take place at the majestic Mohonk Mountain House.

Galápagos

A Family-Friendly Expedition

Combining the natural history of the Galápagos Islands with the rich culture and history of the Andes, this exhilarating itinerary covers two very different aspects of Ecuador.

Our adventure begins in Guayaquil with its notable archeological, art, zoological, and recreational sites. We’ll then fly to Baltra Island and board the comfortable Santa Cruz II, our vessel for exploring various islands teeming with wildlife.

After disembarking, we’ll fly to the highlands, where we’ll stay at a spectacular seventeenth-century restored hacienda and resort.

Wonderful for adults and families, this Galápagos tour is replete with extraordinary creatures and unforgettable sights. Our faculty leader is Scott Taylor, an exceptional evolutionary biologist, who will offer many insights about the animals we encounter on our journey.

FACULTY

Glenn C. Altschuler is dean of the School of Continuing Education and Summer Sessions and the Thomas and Dorothy Litwin Professor of American Studies at Cornell. Gretchen Ritter is dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and the author of The Constitution as Social Design.

FACULTY

Scott Taylor, formerly of Cornell’s Lab of Ornithology, teaches in the Department of Ecology and Evolutionary Biology at the University of Colorado at Boulder and leads the Taylor Lab on hybridization, speciation, and natural history.

INFORMATION

Date: November 2–4, 2018
Cost: DO $1,440, SS $240
Activity level:

INFORMATION

Date: December 18–28, 2018
Cost: DO $10,175–$10,735, C/T $8,700
Activity level:

A few spaces remain—register now!
Activity Level

Easy. Walking is generally over level ground for short distances. May require ability to climb stairs or to stand for periods of time.

Slightly strenuous. May require extended walking over uneven ground as well as the ability to climb stairs and to stand for considerable periods of time.

Moderately strenuous. Assumes the ability to walk for more than a mile over terrain that is sometimes rough, with varying elevations. A good sense of balance and athletic shoes or hiking boots are essential, and walking poles may be desirable.

Strenuous. Designed for those who are fit and accustomed to negotiating hilly, rough terrain. Hiking boots are essential, and walking poles may be desirable.

Standard Inclusions

Program charges include all lodging during the program; meals specified on the itinerary; site visits; entrance fees; guides; any internal train, bus, or air travel; emergency medical-evacuation insurance on international trips; all taxes and gratuities; management services; and the full educational program.

Standard Exclusions

Program charges do not include international airfare; visa and passport fees; luggage, cancellation, and accident insurance; meals and beverages not specified in the itinerary; and personal expenses such as laundry, telephone calls, faxes, and email service.

Travel Cancellation Insurance

We strongly advise you to purchase travel cancellation insurance in case you cannot go on a trip for which you’ve registered. Unexpected changes in travelers’ lives, newer and more restrictive airline penalties, earlier and larger nonrefundable payments to tour operators and hotels, and volatile times make such insurance particularly wise. CAU can rarely recover monies we have paid in your name after the full payment deadline.

How to Register

Register online at cau.cornell.edu or use the form in the back of this brochure. If you have questions please contact our office at 607.255.6260 or cauinfo@cornell.edu.
Share your adventures!

The photos below were taken by CAU participants. Share your own favorite CAU travel experiences by tagging your photos and videos #cornellcau!

facebook.com/cornellcau instagram.com/cornellcau twitter.com/cornellcau

CAU IN PRAGUE
Sun-drenched CAUers grace Shönbrunn Palace in Vienna, Austria.

CAU IN TANZANIA
CAUer zooms in on protective mama lion nursing her two cubs in South Africa.
CAU ON THE SERENGETI
CAU class gathers by hundreds-year-old Baobab tree on the Serengeti of Tanzania.

CAU IN THE GALÁPAGOS
CAU family greets resident Galápagos family and settles in for a quiet visit.
Once again, the quality of this experience far surpasses my expectations. And given how high my expectations are—wow! I am reminded that the quality of an education truly cannot be measured.”

—Janet Pennisi ’81

Plan now to make CAU part of your summer!

CAU offers inspiring weeklong programs on the beautiful Cornell campus every summer. You can study subjects ranging from cooking and gardening to art, politics, and world affairs with engaging Cornell experts and in the company of bright and congenial classmates.

CAU also offers programs for kids (ages three to fifteen) that combine entertaining, educational activities with all the fun and friendships of a great camp.

Ours is the only university program in the country that offers such a wide range of options for all members of the family. So come on your own, with your significant other, with friends, or bring the kids and grandkids. We look forward to seeing you next summer!

“Once again, the quality of this experience far surpasses my expectations. And given how high my expectations are—wow! I am reminded that the quality of an education truly cannot be measured.”

—Janet Pennisi ’81
Use this form if you wish to pay your deposit by check. If you would like to pay by credit card, go to cau.cornell.edu and select the “Register online” option from the “Registration” menu.

To register using this form, please complete it and mail it, with your deposit check, to CAU, B20 Day Hall, Ithaca, NY 14853. All deposits are applied to the full program charge. Deposit and refund amounts and refund deadlines are shown on page 17.

Adult Participant(s)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NAME: FIRST, MI, LAST</th>
<th>CORNELL CLASS YEAR</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NAME: FIRST, MI, LAST</th>
<th>CORNELL CLASS YEAR</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NAME: FIRST, MI, LAST</th>
<th>CORNELL CLASS YEAR</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

For Family-Friendly Trips (Galápagos and Costa Rica)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YOUTH NAME: FIRST, MI, LAST</th>
<th>BIRTHDATE</th>
<th>SEX</th>
<th>GRADE ON PROGRAM DATE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>MM/ DD/ YY</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Primary Contact Information

NAME: ____________________________

ADDRESS: ____________________________

(_______) ______________________ (_______) ______________________

AREA CODE: ______________________ AREA CODE: ______________________

DAY PHONE: ______________________ CELL PHONE: ______________________

EMAIL: ____________________________

Payment of Deposit

Please refer to the table on page 17 for per-person deposit amounts.

☐ Enclosed is my check for $ __________ payable to Cornell University.