• $520 for a three-week program
• $107.50 for a six-week program
Limited financial aid is available. For more information, see our website.

Student life
At Summer College, you’ll live in a campus residence hall with residential community advisors, who will provide supervision, guidance, and fun activities.
Near your residence hall you’ll find community centers with game rooms, computer labs, a convenience store, a fitness center, and a dining hall, where you’ll enjoy some of the best food in the Ivy League.

A supportive environment
We do all we can to support you as you experience college life, juggle the time and college classes, and practice living on your own.
In addition, you’ll have 24/7 access to our health services and the Cornell police.

Summer fun outside the classroom
Our graduates advise incoming students to “Work hard and play hard!” When you arrive, you’ll find lots to do on campus, including intramural sports, field trips, free music, movies, dances, culture nights, a talent show, and much more.

A vibrant, international community
Almost 1,000 students from across the U.S. and 45 countries attend Summer College each year, ensuring you’ll meet interesting people from around the world.
