ADVICE FOR NEXT YEAR’S STUDENTS?

TAKE CLASSES THAT YOU DON’T KNOW A LOT ABOUT. YOU MAY DISCOVER AN INTEREST THAT YOU NEVER KNEW YOU HAD.

TAKE THE TIME TO EXPLORE THE BEAUTY ALL AROUND YOU. BE CURIOUS IN AND OUTSIDE OF THE CLASSROOM AND EXPLORE WHAT CORNELL HAS TO OFFER!

WORK HARD, EXPLORE THE CITY, MEET NEW PEOPLE.

FINISH BIG PROJECTS FIRST, AND DON’T BE AFRAID TO LIVE A LITTLE.

BOWL AT HELEN NEWMAN, EAT AT THE NINES, AND EXPLORE ITHACA. RPCC IS NICE TO WORK IN BECAUSE ITS AC IS AMAZING.

PAY ATTENTION AND START GOING TO OFFICE HOURS EARLY ON!

USE ALL YOUR RESOURCES: WRITING WORKSHOPS, ADMISSIONS SESSION, ETC.

DON’T TRY TO BIKE TO TARGET OR WALK TO DOWNTOWN. I’VE TRIED BOTH AND THEY BOTH TOOK 45 MINUTES ONE-WAY UNDER A HOT SUN. TAKE THE BUS.

BE OUTGOING, MAKE FRIENDS. THAT’S THE BEST PART OF THE THREE WEEKS AND MAKES IT 10X BETTER.

REMEMBER TO PUT YOURSELF OUT THERE! TALK TO PEOPLE, WHETHER YOU KNOW THEM OR NOT! OFTEN TIMES YOU CAN MEET PEOPLE WHO YOU CAN REALLY LEARN A LOT FROM JUST BY TALKING TO THEM.

“I DON’T BELIEVE THERE IS ANY RELIGION THAT IS AS DIVERSE AS ISLAM. THERE ARE A LOT OF PEOPLE FROM AFRICA, FROM ENGLAND, ALL OVER... ALL OF THESE PEOPLE FROM DIFFERENT CULTURES COME TOGETHER FOR ONE COMMON GROUND.”

-SANIYA, MUSLIM

“I DON’T BELIEVE THERE IS ANY RELIGION THAT IS AS DIVERSE AS ISLAM. THERE ARE A LOT OF PEOPLE FROM AFRICA, FROM ENGLAND, ALL OVER... ALL OF THESE PEOPLE FROM DIFFERENT CULTURES COME TOGETHER FOR ONE COMMON GROUND.”

-CRISTINA, BRAZILIAN

“MAINLY THAT MY FAMILY HAS A HISTORY OF SERVING IN THE ARMED FORCES. MY GRANDFATHERS AND UNCLE SERVED IN THE INDIAN MILITARY AND FOR THE CORPS OF ENGINEERS. WE FOCUS ON EDUCATION AND ACADEMICS. THERE ARE PEOPLE IN MY FAMILY WHO HAVE BEEN ENGINEERS, DOCTORS, LAWYERS, AND TEACHERS.”

-ARJAN, INDIAN

“JUST THE IMMEDIATE BOND WITH ANYONE WHO IS MEXICAN. IN MY SCHOOL WE HAVE A LITTLE GROUP OF FIVE KIDS IN MY CLASS THAT ARE ALL MEXICAN AND WE ALL BOND OVER RANDOM THINGS AND WE ALL HAPPEN TO BE MEXICAN. I THINK IT’S ALSO THE GENERAL ENERGY AND PASSION THAT THE MEXICAN CULTURE ITSELF HAS, ESPECIALLY ITS MUSIC AND LANGUAGE, WHICH ARE SO MUCH MORE EMOTIONAL THAN THE MUSIC AND LANGUAGE OF OTHER CULTURES.”

-ALEJANDRA, MEXICAN

“LEARNING THAT NOBODY CAN SILENCE WHO YOU ARE. ONE OF MY FAVORITE SAYINGS IS ‘DON’T YUCK OTHER PEOPLE’S YUMS’. IF SOMEONE ELSE LIKES SOMETHING, WHO ARE YOU TO SAY THAT THEY SHOULDN’T?”

-JUSTIN, TRANS

–Huang Shuying, Chinese

“What is your definition of culture?”

“It defines the I wouldn’t say what makes someone unique, but what makes them feel welcome in some place, culture is what really connects these kind of people together, and ultimately what defines them.”

–Matan Auerbach, Jewish

“How do you actively participate in and celebrate your culture?”

“…trying to help spread our culture. I used to be a volunteer in the Forbidden City to talk about the history of this place, and also our country too.”

–Nuanxi Feng, Chinese

“…well there’s the little things. I wear a pride bracelet and in my hometown I belong to the pride center. We have a lot of events where we host an alternative prom, ball, and weekly discussion groups.”

–Jason Seingold, Trans
“I THINK THE MOST CELEBRATED HOLIDAY OF MY CULTURE IS NEW YEAR (Новый год NOY GOD) BECAUSE THIS IS THE TIME WHEN ALL OF MY BIG DIVERSE FAMILY GETS TOGETHER, SITS AROUND ONE TABLE, SOCIALIZES, AND HAS A GREAT TIME... THE WHOLE ATMOSPHERE OR HAVING A HUGE TABLE WITH A LOT OF RELIGIOUS FOOD, HAVING THE REAL CHRISTMAS TREE IN THE ROOM (THE SMELL IS SO REFRESHING) WITH A LOT OF COLORFUL DECORATIONS ON IT, HEARING CHILDREN LAUGHING AND WAITING UNTIL MIDNIGHT OR MORNING TO RECEIVE THEIR PRESENTS—JUST MAKES MY DAY EVEN MORE PERFECT.”

—ANASTASIYA, RUSSIAN

DIWALI IS THE BIGGEST HOLIDAY.
IT’S SAID TO BE THE NEW YEAR AND IT’S A CELEBRATION OF LIGHT. YOU ARE SUPPOSED TO KEEP ALL OF THE LIGHTS ON IN YOUR HOME SO THAT THE GODS CAN COME IN AND BLESS YOU. IT’S A LOT ABOUT PRAYING AND BEING WITH YOUR FAMILY AND LOVED ONES AND A SENSE OF NEWNESS. YOU GET NEW CLOTHES, AND MONEY, IT’S ABOUT BRINGING IN POSITIVE ENERGY AND POSITIVE VIBES.”
